Help us help more people

We want to hear from you!

What is the project?

- The NHSE contract is supporting and developing Art, Drama and Music Therapies for the future, through the creative and collaborative partnership between: BAAT, BADth and BAMT
- This contract is part of the wider Allied Health Professionals Professional Bodies Education Reform Commission
- The project includes significant engagement with the public, service users, Art, Drama and Music Therapists, education providers and employers

‘...so what do you need from me?’

We want to hear your experience. Why and how you found dramatherapy, what it's been like for you, how it may have helped, and/or any concerns or issues you may have. There is no need to travel, our Focus Group will be online, and sensitively chaired by a creative arts expert.

Your participation will directly benefit the profession and most importantly, help future Service Users!

Project Coordinator

My name is Daniela, I am very pleased to be project coordinating this exciting NHSE Commission. I really look forward to hearing from you. Do get in touch for more information or to simply talk it through. Contact me via email, and I'll be happy to call you if you'd prefer.
